"Whipple Wood CPAs impressed me with their professionalism and their understanding of taxes. I really didn't expect them to get it right the first time, given the complications of my return. But they obviously know what the heck they are doing. I am so used to catching mistakes from others that my trust level has dropped significantly when I'm working with someone new. I'm glad I found you Whipple Wood, and I will certainly feel more comfortable sending clients their way."
